Issue No. 1 / 2023

Safeguarding Myanmar People

Healthcare services are rendered to the disaster (Mocha Cyclone) victims to all ethnicities and religions.

The ASEAN Emergency Response and Assessment Team (ASEAN-ERAT) conducted a field survey in Mocha-affected areas: Sittway, Rathedaung, Kyauktaw, and Ponnagyun townships in Rakhine State from 22 to 25 May. Leaders from two survey teams clarified the findings and the tasks that should be prioritized based on the results of the survey in relations to food, shelter, water and cleaning up, drinking water, livelihoods, and employment. The emergency response to Cyclone Mocha and the conditions of the rehabilitation process were also discussed.

International Cooperation

THE Myanmar delegation led by State Administration Council Member Union Minister at Union Government Office National Security Adviser Lt-Gen Yar Pyae attended the 3rd ASEAN-Russia Consultations of the High Representatives for Security Issues and the opening ceremony of the plenary meeting of the 11th International Meeting of High-Ranking Officials Responsible for Security Matters held in the Russian Federation from 23 to 25 May.

Around 20 tons of emergency aids and relief items donated by Their Majesties the King and Queen of Thailand as well as various sectors from Thailand were handed over by H.E. Mr. Mongkol VISITSTUMP, Ambassador of Thailand to Myanmar to U Than Swe, Union Minister for Foreign Affairs.
